

UNFLATTERED

BLANK

*Written by Younes Ben El Haj

Look at me and watch, whats been redoubt
Takes my strength and my emotions away and see
I'm still delighting far away, ain't falling caus' ya
I forgot the convo days and phony nights
Splash of time blaze to doom
I've lost grip and turned into skyline
Make directions make it easy, unforgiving
Never mind, we're already doomed too soon I've lost touch, i've said too much, been opposites and such. But i'lllll (what?)

Forget about dwelling what "could've" been
I saw you wasting time, tik-tok out of your mind
I don't blame ya for being unconscious all the time
I've seen enough, i've had too much, been unflattered and such. But I wish it waas alll ...
From my mind, from my mind, from my mind
From my mind, from my mind, from my mind
From my mind, from my mind, from my mind.
